MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)

1. At the 27 December meeting in Texas between DCI and the President, the President said he believed he should call together the heads of all Senate and House committees to give them a 15 or 20 minute briefing on Soviet military capabilities, sanitizing to the extent necessary, and following with a briefing on the Soviet and ChiCom economies. The President thought the DCI's presentation should be followed by Rusk's commentary on world conditions and McNamara's on US military posture. The President would then follow with summary remarks.

2. The DCI asks that work begin immediately on appropriate briefing papers. No time has been set for such a meeting. The meeting presumably will be arranged by the White House.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)

1. At the 27 December meeting between DCI and the President in Texas, the DCI reviewed briefly the items which have been prepared in DD/I to be covered at a future NSC meeting. These include the Soviet atomic energy program, the situation in China, and the Sino-Soviet dispute.

2. There was no agreement to call an NSC meeting, but DCI believes this would be useful and should be arranged at an early date.
